universität wien

Workshop
("Festival of India" 2011)

information technologies and innovation in sanskrit-based indian studies

March 25 – 26, 2011

at the Institute for South Asian,
Tibetan and Buddhist Studies, Seminarraum 1,
Universitätscampus, Spitalgasse 2, Hof 2.7, 1090 Vienna

Friday, 25th of March, 2011

9:00 – 9:10	ADDRESS OF WELCOME
9:10 – 9:55	Dominik WUJASTYK: Text, structure and embedded meaning
9:55 – 10:40	Oliver HELLWIG: Improving the automatic tokenization and lexical analysis of Sanskrit texts
10:40 – 11:10	COFFEE BREAK
11:10 – 11:55	Anand MISHRA: Integrating traditional analyses in computational processing of Sanskrit texts
11:55 – 14:30	BREAK
14:30 – 15:15	Jan WESTERHOFF: Śāstravid: A new tool for the study of Indian philosophy
15:15 – 16:00	Birgit KELLNER: The Indian Logic Knowledge Base: Towards the development of terminological resources in Sanskrit knowledge systems
16:00 – 16:30	COFFEE BREAK
16:30 – 17:15	Olga Serbaeva SARAOGI: The place and role of the Śaiva Tantric texts in early mediaeval Indian literature with a particular accent on the Purāṇas: A reassessment based on the computer-assisted statistical analysis of textual parallels and indexes
17:15 – 18:00	Sven SELLMER: IT-based methods in metrical studies of the Mahābhārata

Saturday, 26th of March, 2011

9:00 – 9:45   Himal TRIKHA: A Study of the Manuscripts
                     of the Woolner Collection

9:45 – 10:30   Philipp A. MAAS: On solving the problem of textual contamination by means of computer-aided stemmatics

10:30 – 11:00   COFFEE BREAK

11:00 – 12:15   informal presentations
                     (Olga SARAOGI, Jonas SOINÉ, Markus
                     SCHÜPBACH, Ernst PRETS)

12:15 – 14:00   BUFFET LUNCH

14:00   informal presentations (continued)

                     BREAK

                     Open discussion on the presentations
                     (until approx. 18:00)

Workshop registration

Please complete this form and send it by e-mail or fax to the Institute's office before March 18th, 2011:

Alexandra.Boeckle@univie.ac.at

Fax +43-1-4277-9435

Name:

Institution:

Address:

Phone:

Fax:

e-mail: