

A Joint Research Meeting of the Sushruta Project and the Classical Āyurveda Text Study Group

Department of South Asian, Tibetan and Buddhist Studies
University of Vienna, Austria*

July 7–9, 2022

Saturday, July 9th, 2022: Public Talks

| | |
|----------------------|--|
| 9:00 – 10:00 | Dominik Wuyastyk The Sushruta Project: Problems, Solutions, Discoveries |
| 10:00 – 11:00 | Madhu K. Parameswaran The influence of the Suśrutasamhitā on the pharmacological theories of the Aṣṭāṅgasaṅgraha |
| 11:00 – 11:30 | Coffee & Tea |
| 11:30 – 12:30 | Philipp Maas On the Position of the Basic Text of Jajjaṭa's Nirantarapadavyākhyā within the Transmission of the Carakasamhitā |
| 12:30 – 14:00 | Lunch |
| 14:00 – 15:00 | Cristina Pecchia Ayurveda and Philology: Around Gangadhar Kaviraj |
| 15:00 – 16:00 | Alessandro Grahelli The choice of Devanāgarī: Typesetting Sanskrit Editions in the Digital Era |

*All talks will take place in the seminar room SR1, in AAKH, Hof 2.7// Spitalgasse 2–4// Wien 1090. Please contact Andrey Klebanov (andrey.klebanov@univie.ac.at) if you want to participate in the research workshop on July 7–8.