His Eminence Khamba Lama Javzandorj Dulamragchaa, the Chief Abbot of Gandantegchenling Monastery in Ulaanbaatar, Mongolia, will present a public lecture on the profound and lasting heritage of Mongolian Buddhism. As the Khamba Lama and spiritual head of the nation's leading Buddhist institution, he offers a valuable perspective on the ways Buddhism has shaped Mongolia's spiritual and cultural identity over the centuries. His presentation will explore the historical progression of the faith in Mongolia with focus on philosophical and cultural aspects.
